

Group: G.I.R.L.s (Girls In Real Life) – a mother-daughter life group

Purpose: A life group designed to give mothers and daughters a safe place for deep conversations and Biblical truths on Real Life issues. A place where teens can connect with Godly women to help navigate through life.

Demographic: All Youth-age girls (7th Grade thru 12th Grade) and their mothers or grandmothers (you need not be a member of Crestwood to participate).

Leaders: Blythe Cox and Stacey Johnson

Meeting Information: once a month on the 2nd Sunday of the month.

Type of Group: Open (join anytime)

Additional Information:

How to join: You may request to join the G.I.R.L.s group on The City or provide your email address to Blythe or Stacey and they will send you a request to join the group.